

NORTHUMBERLAND FEDERATION OF WIs
PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE – KNUTSFORD MILLENIUM TAPESTRY

Life in Knutsford is captured in a 40 ft tapestry containing 6,500,000 stitches in three panels named Tatton, Canute and Toft. It is a truly amazing piece of art featuring a vast range of very detailed buildings and scenes. One of the original WI supporters of the project will share her insights and details of the work via a video recording. There will be an open discussion and questions and answers, as well as some memorabilia on display. Come to Cresswell House on 25 June for this amazing experience. There will be tea/coffee and cake at 2 pm.
